WHO is FPS?

Famous Pacific Shipping (FPS) is an international logistics service provider headquartered in Rotterdam.

The company specializes in container consolidation and worldwide network solutions with personal service.

Press release

Dear Sir or Madam, dear business partners,

I would like to inform you today about an important change. Euroconsol Germany GmbH in Bremen has been fully acquired by FPS (Famous Pacific Shipping) Rotterdam. In the future, Euroconsol Germany GmbH will operate under the name FPS Famous Pacific Shipping GmbH. This means: Euroconsol Germany GmbH becomes FPS.

For you as a customer, however, the most important things remain unchanged: our location in Bremen will stay the same, and your points of contact will also remain unchanged. Our familiar processes and services will continue as usual.

At the same time, this step opens up new opportunities.

What does this means for you?

Direct integration into an international network, strengthening our position in container consolidation, expanded market presence in Europe, additional volumes and economies of scale, and greater international reach while maintaining the same personal service.

I will continue to serve as Managing Director and, together with my team, ensure stability, continuity, and quality.

After several successful years as Euroconsol Germany GmbH, this step represents a logical next stage in our development. With FPS Rotterdam as our shareholder, we gain additional strength, international structure, and a long-term perspective.

We, the entire team, would like to sincerely thank you for the trust you have already placed in us and look forward to continuing our successful cooperation.

Nina Berninghausen,
Managing Director
